

Matter of Brewster
Del. Supr. No. 184, 1990 (1990)

Disciplinary Rules: DLRPC 8.4(b)

Sanctions Imposed: Interim Suspension.

By order of the Delaware Supreme Court, David K. Brewster, Esquire, was suspended from the practice of law in the State of Delaware on an interim basis pending further order of the Court. The suspension followed the filing of a verified petition for interim suspension by the Office of Disciplinary Counsel. The Petition stated that Mr. Brewster was sentenced on January 23, 1990 by U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida to 15 months' incarceration for violation of United States Code Title 18, Section 1344(a)(92), Bank Fraud, a felony.

Mr. Brewster failed to respond to the Court's letter to show cause why he should not be suspended from the practice of law. The Court entered an order suspending Mr. Brewster from the practice of law and found that Mr. Brewster's misconduct, including his conviction of a serious crime, posed a substantial threat of irreparable harm to his clients, prospective clients and the orderly administration of justice.
